30th March 2017

Dear parents and carers,

Easter holiday GCSE Music catch up session

During the Easter holidays I will be holding a coursework catch up session for GCSE Music students who are behind with their coursework and have not met the final submission date (30th March).

The catch up day is Wednesday 12th April 10am-3pm.

It is extremely important your child attends this session as this is the last opportunity to complete all coursework before it is sent off to the exam board the first week back after the Easter holidays.

There will be no extension after this date as all course work needs to be marked over the Easter holidays.

Students will need to bring any refreshments they require during the day with them. If you have any queries please contact me on m.sage@fairfield.hereford.sch.uk and I look forward to seeing your child on 12th April.

Yours faithfully
