Dear parents and carers,

Jekyll and Hyde Malvern Theatre Trip – Wednesday, 28th February

On Wednesday, 28th February, we are running a theatre trip for Sets 1 and 2, who study 'Jekyll and Hyde' as their set text for their English Literature GCSE. 'Jekyll and Hyde' is a challenging novella and there are no on-screen adaptations to date that are sympathetic to the original story. This year, we are fortunate to have 'Jekyll and Hyde' touring on-stage and being performed at Malvern Theatres. The production is based on the novella and stars Phil Daniels as Dr. Jekyll.

We hope that seeing the production will help students to remember key quotes, characters and the storyline of the novella in preparation for their exams in May this year. Therefore, we strongly recommend that students attend and make the most of this rare opportunity.

Please complete the slip below and return to Miss Worsfold or Ms McMaster no later than Friday, 9th February. Transport and tickets for the production cost £15.50 per student. Please pay via Parent Pay. Students will come to school as usual in the morning. We will depart from school for the theatre at 12:30pm and should return to school at approximately 6:15pm.

Students are allowed to wear non-school uniform for the trip and will need to bring a packed lunch to eat on the coach, as we will be leaving before lunchtime. Students may also like to bring some money to purchase a programme of the production. We are certainly looking forward to seeing the production and we hope students are too.

Yours faithfully,

Head of Faculty for English MFL and Drama
